

Volunteering Opportunities

Julian House Charity Shop Volunteers – Walcot Street, Bath

Our charity shops play an important role in raising money to help homeless and vulnerably housed people to access shelter, food, help and support in the Bath area. Our charity shop in the Artisan Quarter of Bath has a large bookshop as well as the usual clothes, music and homeware. We are a vibrant shop and welcome volunteers of all ages and experience to help with a variety of jobs, from customer service to sorting books and clothes, through to designing advertising campaigns and promotions.

We pride ourselves on offering a great service in a well presented customer friendly environment.

We always welcome new volunteers to our friendly team and we provide all training and tea and biscuits.

Open Monday to Saturday 10am – 5pm and Sunday 11am – 4pm.

Skills and Qualifications Required

No formal qualifications are required – just enthusiasm!

Skill Development

It is a great way to make new friends and gain invaluable skills in retail or customer service. Or, maybe you have a special skill that you can bring to us?

Directions

This shop is at 86 Walcot Street, in the Artisan Quarter of Bath. It is about 5 minutes' walk from Waitrose, on the right hand side as you walk up Walcot Street towards London Road.

Other Information

Volunteers must be at least 16 years old.

Volunteers should be prepared to commit to at least one (you can do more!) half day shift a week.

We look forward to welcoming you. Please contact the shop for an informal chat and an application form. Telephone 01225 331114 or e-mail lisab@julianhouse.org.uk.
